

President of the provincial court of Cuenca

The president of the provincial court of Cuenca is the representative figure of the judicial institution in the province. The president is appointed by the General Council of the Judiciary for a term of five years, with the possibility of reelection. The president combines governmental and representative tasks of the post with the presidency of one section of the court.

The president of the provincial court of Cuenca is magistrate José Eduardo Martínez Mediavilla.